

Malaysian Green Technology Corporation also known as GreenTech Malaysia is an organization under the purview of the Ministry of Energy, Science, Technology, Environment & Climate Change (MESTECC).

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER (CEO)

Summary of Position

The CEO is responsible to lead the development and execution of Malaysian Green Technology Corporation's vision, mission and strategic objectives to be the leading organization in spearheading green economy for green growth and sustainability by championing green technology, climate resilience and green culture as per MESTECC and Board of Directors directions¹.

Candidate Requirements:

- Malaysian citizen, possesses at least 15 years working experience; with at least 5 to 7 years of working at senior management levels. Candidate with green technology, alternative energy, environment, climate change and sustainable development sector is an added advantage
- Hold at least a Bachelor's degree or Masters degree in relevant discipline while MBA holder is a plus point
- Must have strong leadership and management skills, strategic mindset and must have technical expertise and knowledge pertaining to few areas under green technology
- Strong business acumen with knowledge of financial management as well as ability for fund raising
- High integrity and excellent work ethics, with strong sense of responsibility, commitment and discipline
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills, and the ability to interact effectively with all stakeholders including the government, industry players, clients and the community

The Job Role & Responsibilities includes:

Leadership and Vision

Lead the Leadership Team in developing and executing company-wide strategies to optimize shareholder value by enhancing organizational capability through strong, capable and innovative leadership

Business Operations

Direct the business operations of the company to ensure alignment with the company's overall strategic direction by setting operational principles that are conducive to stimulating premium financial, operational and individual performance.

¹ Malaysian Green Technology Corporation has now been designated as the interim National Climate Centre since June 2019

Public Relations & Stakeholders Management

- Effective Board of Directors communications and relations by ensuring that the management and operating group are in line with Board of Director's and MESTECC decisions and guidelines.
- To Develop and maintain a wide network of internal and external relationship to build confidence, trust and respect with others and to increase Greentech's competitive advantage and brand name.
- To communicate effectively with all shareholders including employees, Government authorities and the community.

Financial Management

- Plan, define, implement and manage Budgets through good forecasts and controls.
- Plan and achieve business results including Revenues, Expenses, P&L, capital expenditures and ROI.
- Strategies alternative financing and the ability for fund raising and increasing smart partnership for optimum use of resources while enhancing delivery.

People Management

Ensure high performance, motivation and capability improvement of the team by:

- having effective communication skills, interpersonal skills, performance planning, monitoring and performance coaching and counseling.
- ensuring effective talent management and capacity including capability development processes.
- actively participating in strategic alignment of all business operations in the group through integrating and setting the philosophical basis of the group.

Compliance and Risk

- Oversees to ensure compliance with all applicable governing legislation, regulations, directives and policies.
- Ensuring implementation of risk management practices and procedures in accordance with the risk management framework approved by the Board.

General

- To cooperate and participate in Company's activities, teams & committees as well as with MESTECC's programs and events.
- To perform any other duties as and when assigned by the Board and MESTECC.

We are offering competitive remuneration package based on contract commensurate with candidate experience and academic credential.

Interested applicants, kindly send your CV to CEOvacancy@greentechmalaysia.my before or on 21st July 2019.

Applications will be treated with strict confidentiality. Only shortlisted candidates will be notified.